WORKING FOR THE SENATE. Democrats Assert that a Tie is Possible

in the Upper Branch. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- The interest in the political situation deepens. It almost looks as if the Senate might be dangerously near a tie. Friends of Senator Moody of South Dakota are quite alarmed. They are in receipt of dis-patches from Moody himself, which seem to confirm the previous reports that the Farmers' Alliance has captured the South Dakota Legislature, and will elect the Senator who will succeed Moody on

Mr. Moody's successor will not neces-sarily be a Democrat, but he will vote sarily be a Democrat, but he will vote with the Democrats, so it is claimed, on tariff issues, and possibly on other questions. If Farwell in Illinois and Teller in Colorado should happen to have Legistures returned adverse to their re-election, it is quite possible that on tariff questions the Senate may be a tie, or may even have an adverse majority of may even have an adverse majority o one to the McKinley bill.

The Republican Senators here are not worried over the political outlook, and assert that they will retain a majority.

A Female Postal Clerk Suspended. Washington, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Margaret Watkins, a clerk at the general delivery window in the postoffice in this city, has been suspended by orders from Postmaster-General Wanamaker for using offensive language towards Richard Quay, the son of Senator Quay of Pennsylvania. The circulated account of the affair has it that young Quay asked for his father's mail at the delivery window and some one standing near remarked "He's dead. It goes to the Dead Letter office now," and Mrs. Watkins who was on duty at the window thoughtlessly re-peated the remark. Superintendent Bell, of the city delivery, admits that he made the remark which Mrs. Watkins repeated.

THE COMING PARLIAMENT. bebate to be Cut Off by the Application of Closure.

LONDON, Nov. 8 .- A Cabinet council was held during the forenoon at which the question of enforcing the right of closure during the coming session o Parliament was discussed. It is be-lieved that most of the Ministers object to allowing the opposition to talk very much during the session, as the Conservatives have nothing to gain by any further debate on the issues now before

It is expected that the Liberals and Nationalists will propose an amendment to the address from the throne, demanding that the Queen dissolve Parliament. Under ordinary circumstances this would bring on a prolonged discussion of the Government's past record and future policy; but according to the present temper of the Conservatives, it is likely to simply be voted down, debate being cut

The party in power shows no sign of an inclination to head the frequently expressed will of the people that a change of administration should be made.

Want President Harrison to Resign. LONDON, Nov. 8 .- The ignorance of Eng writers on American topics is agai illustrated by some of the comments in the papers regarding the American elec-tions. It is actually declared in more than one editorial that President Harrison and his Cabinet ought to resign nov that the country has repudiated their policy. The idea that the American governmental system is radically different from the English seems not to have occurred to these writers.

Miss Blordan Shot Dr. Bright. London, Nov. 8.—The woman arrested for shooting Dr. Bright, of Oxford, is Miss Kate Riordan. It is supposed that she was made furious by the prospect that Mr. Bright's daughter was about to marry Mr. Haines, who had formerly paid attentions to Miss Riordan. Mr. Haines declares that he was never engaged to Miss Riordan, and that she is laboring under an insane delusion. Terrible Storms in Great Britain LONDON, Nov. 8 .- Storms and floods prevail throughout Great Britain. Many houses in all parts of the country have been unroofed, bridges swept away, and wharves battered to pieces by rushing winds and sweeping waters. It is al-ready known that vessels plying in the coasting trade have been wrecked by the furious gales and enormous seas.
